ALL FUR ONE

Ladies, it's all about the coat. A signature piece in every woman's wardrobe, it's also the only item that is absolutely necessary for any Chicagoan who plans to brave the increasingly cooler city temps. We checked in with the folks at Dennis Basso, the go-to designer for stylish and elegant outerwear, to see what they had in store. One of our favorites (it's tough to choose!) is the brown broadtail coat with sable ($30,000). This year marks the firm's 25th anniversary, and what better way to help the brand celebrate than to purchase one of its fab furs? Dennis Basso, 980 North Michigan Avenue, 312-640-9500; dennisbasso.com.

CALL OF THE WILD

When tribal prints were spotted all over fall runways, it was only a matter of time before jewelry followed suit. Rebecca has created perfectly polished pieces that are fresh for fall and not a bit over the top. Imagine the Melrose woven cuff ($475) paired with a shrunken navy blazer and a crisp white button-down. The equally stunning rose-gold-over-bronze hoop earrings ($295) are quickly becoming our everyday staples. HAT COUTURE

Blame it on the bright lights of paparazzi bulbs: In-the-know celebs have been spotted wearing their favorite fedoras everywhere from short trips to Whole Foods to low-key evening affairs. Here in the Windy City, the trend is catching on fast, thanks in part to Sara Czosnyka, lead designer for Samsara Designs. The native Chicagoan has parlayed her penchant for headwear into a unique collection featuring clean lines, natural materials, and quirky accents. Check out her latest creations and say hello to one of her muses, Charles, at the equally hip Bonnie & Clyde's in Wicker Park. Available at Bonnie & Clyde's, 1751 West Division Street, 773-235-2680; samsaradesign.com. —J.B.

PERFECT SCENTS

OUR PICKS FOR FALL'S
BEST FRAGRANCES.

ELLIE PARFUM

The latest fragrance from local Jessica Dunne, Ellie Nuit ($195) is designed to complement Ellie Parfum, her original, ladylike scent. Ellie Nuit is elegant with a modern twist and the perfect fragrance for evening, featuring a blend of rose, violet, fig, sandalwood, cashmere wood, and coriander seeds. To us, it sounds like the best scent to spritz on just before a blissful night's sleep. Available at June Blaker, 870 North Orleans Street, 312-751-9220; elliedperfume.com.

EMPORIO ARMANI DIAMONDS FOR MEN

Confident and successful with a touch of nonchalant charm—that's the description of the man who wears Emporio Armani Diamonds cologne ($38-$63), the latest fragrance from the Armani brand. Following on the heels of Emporio Armani Diamonds for women, Armani unveiled the men's fragrance, which has a woody-gourmand scent enhanced with hints of cocoa bean and Szechuan pepper. And the perfect face to represent the scent's ideal? Josh Hartnett, of course, whose Midwestern charm never goes unnoticed. Available at Saks Fifth Avenue, 700 North Michigan Avenue, 312-944-6500; giorgioarmanibeauty-usa.com.
